Summary For Week 4

I created a Windows Server Cloud Server, the server tag and expiration date have been collected, server information has been documented, I put the screenshots in its folder and coursework was backed up outside the server. I can access the same server for future class sessions.